ROZELT MAKES KARNAGEZ OUR OFFISHUL SPLEN

All Documents, Including His Messages, to Be Phonetic.

OYSTER BAY, Aug. 24.—President Roosevelt to-day announced that he has adopted the spelling reform spelling.

The President also stated that he has instructed the Public Printer that all official documents from the White House, including the President's message, shall be printed in accordance with the recommendations of a spelling reform committee, headed by Brander Matthews, of Columbia University.

He will immediately order all correspondence of the President and of the executive force of the White House spelled in accordance therewith.

As the spelling reform committee shall adopt new reforms, they will be added to the President's list and also to that of the Public Printer.

It is indeed a poverty, judging by her appearance before externally, she bore downy likeness to the way gowned widow, gambling-stock-jobber-massoner-hu-

West Side until she and dupes began dis-tainer of its ways.

She was gullied shirtless, an ancient garment,

from a safety-pin

was made up in the bird's nest. She complained. Her hat of damaged chip-

its stockings angles

in looking as you

the use of fancies in State busses, this spoil has received a big boom and we can soon expect to hear of Leob getting into trouble for trimming the whisker on sum venerable old wuds endorl by the Administrashun.

The cause is to have all notables lettr drop from wuds. President Roosevelt sez to kare only for lettors that will make noz, az, for instanz, his lett to Congressman Watson or Leob's lett to the Adminstrashun.

How can a powder-pale heroine property forbid the "pans" without that extra "n" to roll it out? No longer will gilded youth lead chequered careers receiving cheques. He may be very glad to get plain, ordinary "cheeks." Ladies will be "drest fit for any thorefare," their dresser being in good taste "thrount."

Here's the Official List.

"Wo is me that she ever crost my path and winkt at me," will be the groan of the coquet's victim. "And curst is the hour that first I kist and carest her."

All this being to who that the "ay" has given way to the pink five o'clock

"Twill be a woful day for Leob when he has fix' up the following list and cares for these."
